5.1 The symbolism of an idea

{Pharah}

[3:89]

What is symbolism? Symbolism is an ethical or a non-ethical representation of an idea. The symbol has a stronger impact than the idea that it represents. Symbolism is a passive energy, that is, it does not manifest, except when it evinces energy. Only symbolism does not know what is prudence.

Through symbolism, ideas are regenerated, the virtuous ones being the result of Heavenly Values. Therefore, a symbol is neither good nor evil. It adapts to an idea and takes on its characteristics.

The symbol of purification is water. The idea of Faith in the Lord and the drinking of water for the cleansing of the soul, constitutes the ideal path towards Divine communication.

To symbolise means to adapt. Through symbolism, you become at that moment, worthy of communicating your Faith in the Divine and the Divine blesses you.

5.2 My symbolisms have deep meanings

{John of the Apocalypse}

[17:231]

Blessed brothers in the Name of the Most Gracious Lord, His Son and the Holy Spirit.

The images that I have transmitted, together with the relevant interpretation, are being verified in your time. The difficulty is, to what do the wild beasts,

Holy water is blessed in some Churches on the first day of each month for the cleansing of houses of evil spirits.

A lit candle symbolises: the wax (body of a human entity); the flame (the soul) and the wick (subconscious). For more details see section 2.5 of Book 1 in the series which can be downloaded free from www.divinepharos.org

St John the Apostle (circa 6-100 AD) was the youngest and the beloved disciple of Jesus Christ. He is also called Theologian, John the Seer and John of Patmos.

Traditionally the Apocalypse (Revelation) has been thought to have been written in Greek by the Apostle John (Ioannis) during his forced 18-months exile, by the Romans, on the Isle of Patmos.

the animals and morphs of Satanic Energy correspond? There is no need for me to say that the Lamb is none other than the Son of God.

If you follow carefully what is happening in the whole world, it will greatly assist you to discover on your own to what the various symbols and monsters correspond. For this reason it was difficult for me to return to the interpretation of my written words and I left real images to mature into what is happening to the disturbed and chaotic spirits of your world so you can be familiarised on all the points that the Apocalypse needs to clarify, and again through my words. I do not know when this will be. This largely depends on you, because the day of great agitation caused by the Wicked Serpent is approaching. Of course, when the storm passes and the new rebuilding of your world begins, Light will start to glow from there to give you new strength and guide you to new destinations.

The period that I refer to will last a long time because such important miracles do not happen instantaneously. It only suffices, for a period, after you have gone through the storm, to calm both your spirit and your soul and enjoy the new images that will continue for an unknown number of years.

My symbolisms have deep meanings that I could not clarify further because of the period when I was on Earth. Thus, the Apocalypse remained a mythical vision and an impressive image full of unexplained mysteries. The whole work was regarded as a poetic expression of a Seer who avoided giving the true meaning of his visions.

Symbolically you have wild beasts that symbolise:

- (i) The Power of gold

morphs: forms, shapes, figures.

Apocalypse = Revelation. Apocalypse, from Greek apokalypto, to reveal, is the name given to the last book in the Bible.

Wicked Serpent = Devil

Revelations 12:13
So the great dragon was cast out, that serpent of old, called the Devil and Satan, who deceives the whole world.

- (ii) The Corruption of conscience (that you call brain washing)
- (iii) The Distortion of meanings
- (iv) Woman, as the means of applying the energy of the Snake.

You are perfectly able to assign these four elements to the four animals. Do not worry about the rest, because they are being revealed. Again I will help you with the points of the Apocalypse that are the most difficult to explain and assist you until I am able to give you the final form with the continuations of my Vision.

When someone respects, values and loves Divinity with faith and devotion, then he extends his hands towards the Lord, and He, by the enlightenment of the Holy Spirit, transmits to the person who prays, images of what will happen in the near and distant future.

This blessing is given to all. It is only necessary to be in isolation together with the provisions that I stated. The Lord is not frugal when He knows where to give attention and perceptive knowledge.

Until now, My beloved ones, no one from the very learned and very busy intellectuals has managed to understand the meaning of the complicated images of my Apocalypse. You are the first to receive this small amount of information to assist you, as leading lights, inside the darkness which you traverse.

I am very pleased because I have been able to provide you with a thread so you can find the exit from the cave that you have entered to research My images. That is all I have to say for the time being.

I leave you with the blessing of Our Benevolent

From Wikimedia Commons by V Vasnetsov.

John in His Apocalypse gives an apocalyptic view of the last days and describes 4 horses, signifying war (red), civil strife (white), hunger (black and death(pale).

The four elements usually refer to air, fire, earth and water.

Christian tradition has linked the 4 Gospels with 4 "living creatures" surrounding God's throne: Revelation 4:7-8

The first living creature was like a lion, the second living creature like a calf, the third living creature had a face like a man, and the fourth living creature was like a flying eagle.

The four living creatures, each having six wings were full of eyes around and within and they do not rest day or night saying:

"Holy, holy, holy □ is the Lord God Almighty, □ who was, and is, and is to come."

Air is the symbol for Matthew and corresponds to a man/ angel. Fire the symbol for Mark corresponds to a lion.

Earth the symbol for Luke corresponds to a calf.

Water the symbol for John corresponds to an eagle.

provisions = Faith and devotion

5.3 The myth is a type of symbolism

{Aesop}
[18-149]

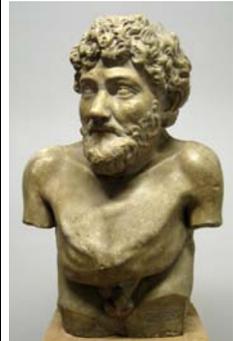

Friends, I spoke many times in the past about myth though it is necessary to repeat that the myth is neither truth nor falsehood. It is a kind of symbolism. It is the antechamber of the Truth.

Men have an aversion towards Truth even though they praise it. They turn away because Truth opposes their interests. How can We then give to Man the deep meaning of Truth? We do this by myth that attracts Man and directs him to the deeper chambers of Truth. Truth is much loved only in Heaven. Man who has Divine Enlightenment enters into the myth's meaning straight away and interprets the Truth as necessary for Justice.

You enter the chamber of Love through the chambers of Truth and Justice. And because Love is, according to the meaning of Logic, the Face of God, you approach the path of the Creator by understanding His Mysteries little by little.

The myth is not an image of reality but it opens the path towards reality, so that you can enter without fear and awe in the directness of conscience with the enlightenment of the mind, so that the latter does not escape from the company of the soul.

Next time I will explain a myth in a way different than your brothers' way because it is possible for every person to give a different explanation for the same myth. The result then of the myth is that time is

Aesop or Esopus: Aesop (from the Greek Αἰσωπος — Aisopos), famous for his fables, was a slave who lived circa 550 BC, on the island of Samos, Ancient Greece. The place of Aesop's birth was and still is disputed. Little is known about him from credible records, except that he was at one point freed from slavery and that he was executed in Delphi. He was ugly and had a hunched back. In fact, the obscurity shrouding his life has led some scholars to deny his existence altogether. He is considered as the father of mythology. He was well known in ancient times and was mentioned by Plato and Herodotus. He wrote many plays where the main characters are animals.

In ancient times myths were used to teach in an unthreatening way.

Jesus Christ used parables to convey His message.

lost. If you do not penetrate into the primary reason for the myth, there is no point in explaining it.

The apparent image is different from reality. You see the image and capture its meaning from the opposite side. Often when you observe the beauty of a face, it does not mean that this face is beautiful also in its inner world. This is how the terms of vision and meaning are reversed.

In every event, the myth is a torch that you need when crossing through the deep darkness. With this torch The Great Homer sung his followers melodiously towards the Mysteries of Heaven, Earth and Phenomena.

5.4 The Holy Dove is a symbol

{Pharah}

[3-134]

The Leaders of the Heavenly Power will elaborate upon the method of acquiring intuition and how students can strengthen it in such a way as to be able to see the movements and images of the Spiritual World in a micrograph. This will be achieved in due course. Being discreet towards your brothers' sins will achieve this in time. Forgive them and spend more time assimilating Our texts so you can cultivate within you, the rise and not the fall of your spirituality within yourself.

Whoever nourishes Love towards the Spiritual World ought first of all to have pure thoughts and to apply his Love to his fellow Man as a protector and not as a necessity and obligation. Good words are equivalent to a good image. An image, though, can portray good but cannot apply it since it is only a concept. But Man is not an image, he is an entity and he needs to display the good word through his actions because action is energy and an image is a concept that cannot be applied. To imagine means to transmit concepts without action, that is, I receive a concept and I transmit it as is. The aim is to receive a concept and transform it into energy. The images of the Spiritual World can be transformed, with our help, into good and virtuous energies.

Baptism of Christ by El Greco. Galleria Estense, Modena

*Matthew 3:16

When dogmatic men depict the Holy Dove as a bird they do nothing more than return to the glorification of bird-gods of previous periods. The dove is a symbol. As a bird it cannot be Divine. Therefore, it existed as an entity on Earth and ascended to Heaven when the spirit of Man was still in the swaddling clothes of knowledge.

The Holy Spirit as well as the Saviour of the World, Jesus Christ, existed on Earth. The first country in which the Holy Spirit appeared as an entity in the world of destruction was in Delhi in India. This entity was called Pharah. Since then He has kept this name as a manifold of the Heavenly Power of the Lord.

My teaching is the Pure Word that Anarhon gifts to thoughtless men in order to resurrect them from the harmful and polluted earthly knowledge.

Anarhon = God

Blessed are those who have perceived the words of the willingness of the Almighty, Who through Me gives, disperses and gifts the Heavenly presents of His Immortality to you. The whole Heavenly Spiritual energy depends on the Enlightenment of the Administrator of the Heavenly Light. I have to give you all the following mandate, because when the Lord was in the midst of His tyrants, who enlightened Him, and guided His students, and afterwards the Leaders of His teachings?

The Administrator of the Heavenly Light: is the Holy Spirit who is Lord Pharah = Supreme Light.

Except for Me, who distributes abundantly the good and virtuous thoughts so that the brethren can apply them?

This is My work. And today through this path that the Lord has created I convey Heavenly Knowledge for the enlightenment and illumination of all your fellow men wherever they are in your world.

Whoever does not wish to accept all that I now dictate is unworthy to be called son of the Benevolent Father of us all. Apart from you my dear brethren, in no other country do they receive Heavenly messages directly from Divinity. You have this privilege by the grace of the Lord. Whoever does not want to believe this truth is condemned never to find the true and liberating supreme virtue. Not because We combat those who are not listening to our Authority but We remove our favour and We surrender them to the Winds of the Lord. These winds have a mission using other methods that are painful or wearisome to make them compliant to the Will of He Who commands everything.

Footnote:

The Holy Spirit in the form of Supreme Light gives for the first time the significance of His existence and the reason for your existence.

5.5 The symbolism of the Minoan double axe

{Orpheus}

[3-195]

You may not know why the Minoans had as their emblem the double axe. What did it symbolise? It symbolised strength and the spirit. When you have strength and spirit you can accomplish great things. The spirit increases its strength, because you know how to manage it. It is a symbol of a higher quality of civilisation and not a symbol of destruction. Some later civilisations have misinterpreted this, thinking that only through strength their civilisation could be imposed on others without having spirit; because either for evil or for good, the double axe destroyed its own civilisation.

Φ-A-PA-X = Ph-a-r-a-h

They perceived wrongly the meaning of the emblem and nations applied it in recent wars; they have since been nullified as ridiculous and unable to give to strength spirit.

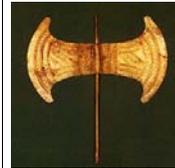

The Minoan civilisation has left a lot of history about which nobody knows. This is because from inscriptions and from other texts researchers were unable to translate their civilisation even though the written word can be easily deciphered. If only the archaeologists had greater faith in their aim and aspired for lesser personal glory. Divinity helps those that turn their gaze towards It and seek Its assistance for their enlightenment.

5.6 The voice of Heaven from the East

[22-202]

The sun rises in the East to engulf Earth with its light. This is a physical law. For the voice of Heaven to reach you it comes from the East, that is, it descends from Heaven and enters the circle that the sun follows. This is also within the physical law. For this reason, turn and face East and invoke Divinity to assist you to see one day, even today – if you have acquired the special power of clairvoyance (inner sight) – the bright Cross. This is a sign that

He was one of a handful of Greek heroes to visit the Underworld and return; As one of the pioneers of civilization, he is said at various times to have taught humanity the arts of medicine. Effort is a good start; persistence is toil and the reward is an image of Divinity. The whole thing is faith without fanaticism, Faith & knowledge.

Do you think that it is easy to see what the whole world ignores? But with patience and persistence you will be able to achieve it (Plutarch).

5.7 The significance of the Lord's Resurrection

{Pharah}
[18-120]

My beloved ones when the soul is resurrected, Man acquires a new life. It is sufficient for Man to perceive that this resurrection is the work of the Lord and only the Lord.

In older times nobody knew if the soul could be resurrected even if it resided on Earth. From Christ's period you have been sufficiently enlightened to comprehend the significance and meaning of resurrection.

Christ did not resurrect for Himself but for you, in order to prove that the soul is immortal and that the soul can be resurrected before the emancipation of the body. Of course, this is if you are in harmony with the indications of the Spiritual World. Until now many did not know the recommendations of the Spiritual World. This is because in the Old Texts there are dark passages that Man interprets according to his spiritual disposition and therefore, the interpretation of the Texts is not correct.

founder of the Academy in Athens, the first institution of higher learning in the western world. He was a student of Socrates.

Church orientations: The Altar faces East in Orthodox Christian Churches.

*John 11:25-26
Jesus said to her, 'I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in Me, though he may die, he shall live. And whoever lives and believes in Me shall never die. Do you believe this?'*

*Philippians 2:8-11
And being found in appearance as a man, humbled Himself and became obedient to the point of death, even the death of the cross.
Therefore God also has highly exalted Him and given Him the name which is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of those in heaven, and of those on earth, and those under earth, and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.*

That is why the Lord wanted to give you through the Spiritual World the necessary recommendations of the Spiritual World. So through these you can easily find the immortal life of Heaven after you have been enlightened and have applied the Divine Words of the Lord.

The Lord was crucified only once. But you do not know how many other times you crucify Him with your evil actions. Therefore, the celebration of Resurrection (Easter) is the feast for contemplating the significance of the liberation of your soul from the material pressures of the destructive world.

Philosophise on this point because today nobody has thought of philosophising, in order to find the true meaning of the ascendancy of his soul. The Lord's Resurrection ought to become the resurrection of your entity because that is where the Lord's sacrifice aims.

Unfortunately, there are men with logic but without correct judgement, who dispute even the existence of the Lord! These foolish men will bitterly regret when they find themselves in the deadlock of Heaven and none of Us will be in a position to give them a helping hand. We speak so you can understand Us, without taking any responsibility, since you ignored Our voice and disputed His existence.

The day for self-concentration is Good Friday. That is considered an outstanding feast-day of bottomless depth! Easter Sunday is a day of joy. I say joy because in comparison with Good Friday, you are released from the depths of death and ascend to the heights of life.

For Easter Week of the Passions of the Lord and Throughout the history of the Church, Christians have preached the Cross, displayed the Cross in their homes and altars, venerated the Cross in the liturgy and signed themselves with the Cross.*

The day of self-concentration is Good Friday which is considered as the holiest day in the Christian calendar.

His Resurrection I wish you happy celebrations and the purification of your entity.

5.8 The significance of the Cross

{Pharah}

[25-231]

The Cross my beloved brethren is a Symbol of Anarhon. For millennia before Christ, the Cross was honoured as a magic symbol and later on was used in sacred rites. Until now you have not had proof of what I am saying because in those times nobody communicated the secret significance of the Cross in writing.

God sent His Son in order for His Crucifixion to prove that, through Sacrifice, Love without self-interest is consolidated. I have spoken many times about the Cross but I return to it because you forget and you do not remember what I taught you and why the Cross became the sign for the extreme punishment of criminals.

I will not refer to those who were the ones who knew of the symbolism of the Cross and wanted it vilified. This is so that this symbol would return to its previous status through the sacrifice of the Lord.

A cross has two distinctive functions in your everyday life: The symbol of addition (+) refers to the physical needs of Man, and of multiplication (x) to enable humanity through population increases to exterminate from time to time the weeds in the garden, in order for the garden to blossom and to produce flowers that are not only good-looking but also aromatic. Not so much for the delight of Man but for his spiritual strengthening, if that spiritual strengthening is liberated from the imagination of

Anarhon = Creator = First Cause

Matthew 10:38-39
And he who does not take his cross and follow Me is not worthy of Me.

evil inspiration.

The Cross will guide you when you follow It. But if you call yourselves Christians by habit only, it is pointless following It. By hollow words you do not go forward towards the boulevard of Truth but only by your actions that have humanistic vigour. In this case, you hold the Cross and you follow the path towards Truth.

The meaning of this image is not metaphorical but is a guide as to the correctness of your steps. Only remember that Jesus was crucified for your sake. The Spiritual World does not lead you to martyrdom on the Cross. On the contrary, through the Cross it attracts you towards the Divine Illumination of Anarhon Himself.

Does Anarhon have such illumination so as to regenerate our spirit? Many men pose this question. And I answer you: The Light of Anarhon is blinding!

When the spirit exceeds its limit of knowledge and I mean the earthly knowledge, it does not know what it is saying. In the present period of various prophets and wise men who operate against the light that is transmitted from Heaven, such spirits are many. For this reason I increase the power of my light to prove to you what will be the downfall of all who try to undermine the Christian Truth. This is not the truth of the priests who do not know what they are saying and doing, but it is the Truth of the Pure Gospel.

What Heaven gives should remain pure in its meaning without the interference of third parties as happened and happens with the Holy Scriptures.

Matthew 16:24-26

Then Jesus said to His disciples, 'If anyone desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me'

For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake will find it.

For what profit is it to a man if he gains the whole world and loses his own soul? Or what will a man give in exchange for his soul?

The Cross, the symbol of Knowledge, is all-powerful. Wherever It appears It overpowers and wherever It does not exist, they are destroyed.

they = the people without the Cross.

This significance of the Cross is difficult to comprehend and it is also difficult to perceive what aim It has. This Holy Symbol brings you regeneration. Not directly, because first a cloud needs to be dissolved. After this the Sun of Grace will rise.

5.9 The symbol of the cross

[14:167] [1:7] [3:19]

It is widely acknowledged that the mystic knowledge of ancient civilisations was far greater than that of today's technical knowledge, where the materialistic philosophy finds refuge. An example of this truth lies in the frequent use in older civilisations of the symbol of the cross. This fact confirms that ancient mystics had knowledge of the true meaning of the Cross as a symbol of Divinity. Unfortunately the usage of the symbol of the cross has been lost in the depths of the millennia. You can find the cross on monuments and in artwork of many pre-Christian people in all parts of the world. The more common forms being:

The isosceles cross in the shape of

The same way as the cross was depicted as an X the Greek letter X (chi) in many ancient inscriptions was written as +.

in the shape of a star

In the shape of tau

The word swastika (or crux gammata) is derived from two Greek words meaning "broken ends". It can also be constructed using the Greek letter Γ (gamma).

in the shape of swastika

in the specific shape of the Egyptian Ankh or looped Tau cross or handled cross.

From these basic forms many other forms can be constructed.

The universal dissemination of the meaning of the cross even in primitive people indicates that in all ages there were humans inspired and guided by Divinity according to the customs of that time.

The mystics knew that the Cross was the symbol of Divine Authority and the key to all the mysteries. For this reason they kept this knowledge secret and only depicted the Cross in frescoes to attract the attention of their fellow men to this holy symbol of Faith.

The Chaldeans were descendants of escaped Atlantean mystics who were racially close relatives of Ancient Greeks. They preserved the symbol of the cross as can be analysed from their name in Greek: Χαλδαιοι or Χ-αλδαιοι (phonetically: H- aldei) with the X (H) being the symbol of the cross and αλδαινω (aldeno) meaning "I make something grow or I empower". That is, Chaldeans are the people who "by the cross are empowered". Therefore they knew the animating power of the cross towards all living entities since it is the source of life.

The Egyptians gave the same meaning to the Ankh cross. This symbol is shown in many of the representations of Egyptian gods. In their wall reliefs and paintings, the sun radiates its rays and at the tip of the rays there is an Ankh cross. The

Ankh means a cross with a loop.

The hieroglyphic Ankh symbol is the symbol for life.

Amenhotep II receives life from Anubis

Atlanteans see Ref 9.

The Chaldean Zaratan should not be confused with Zoroaster (7th century BC). Zaratan was a teacher of Pythagoras.

Zoroaster prophet and religious poet. Greek Zoroástrés appears to have arisen from an association of ástra "stars" with the leading zōrós meaning "undiluted." This is the oldest attested Greek form of the name, attested in the mid-fifth century. Zoroaster appears in the Baha'i Faith as a manifestation of God, one of a line of prophets who have progressively revealed the word of God: Abraham, Moses, meaning is that the sun with its rays offers life the same way as the gods through this symbol offered animation to Man. The same Ankh symbol exists in amulets and decorations, in coins and in tombstones.

When Pythagoras returned to Greece from southern Italy he incorporated into his acquired knowledge the basic symbol of his philosophy, the “tetractys”. The older form of tetractys was an isosceles triangle with numbers placed on the bullet points as shown:

and with numbers:

The older form of the Pythagorean tetractys

The correct translation of tetractys (τετρακτυς) is four (τετρα) - rays (ακτις). If we take four rays and place them symmetrically inside a circle we can form the sign of the cross, as shown:

Guatemala Buddha, Krishna, Jesus, Mohamed and Bab (the founder of Baha'i faith).

Faravahar (or Ferohar), one of the primary symbols of Zoroastrianism, believed to be the depiction of a Fravashi (guardian spirit). In present-day Zoroastrianism, the faravahar is said to be a reminder of one's purpose in life, which is to live in such a way that the soul progresses towards frashokereti, or union with Ahura Mazda, the supreme divinity in Zoroastrianism. [Ref:41].

The translation of the Greek word Tetractys comes from 'Tetra' meaning 'four' and 'actys' which means 'ray'

Also known as the Sunwheel, solar cross or Odin's cross, because Odin's symbol in Norse mythology was a cross in a circle. Used throughout Native American culture to represent the great Medicine Wheel of life. It's also the symbol used by the Gnostic Movements.

The Pythagorean Tetractys

The mystical meaning of the cross justifies why Pythagoras placed such importance on this symbol.

Currently Christians make the sign of the Cross from habit without knowing its deeper significance or empowerment. Very few feel its mystic attributes through their perception. The most secret Pythagorean oath was:

“...yes, in the name of He Who gave to our souls the tetractyn, the fountain of eternal nature containing the elements of the world, the roots...”

The Cross is the fountain of eternal life and is the point of Man’s salvation with the balance of the opposing forces through harmony.

After the Lord’s sacrifice the Cross regained Its sanctity in the consciousness of men. From an instrument of torture and death sentence to which the evil side had converted It, the Cross became a symbol of a truly unique religion, a religion of Love.

Death by crucifixion is a painful death; and as you know pain idealises the soul. Through pain the soul is idealised and acquires strength to subdue the dark knowledge of the spirit and to replace it with enlightened knowledge in order to balance the soul and the spirit. The Lord chose this extreme method of idealisation in order to confirm the Scriptures that “the last will be first”.

This is a classic Druid Symbol or Taranis Wheel. Taranis was the Celtic god of thunder and he used this wheel to generate lightning. As the wheel rotates on the cosmic axis, it generates sparks as it spins and we see these sparks as lightning. The hub of the wheel represents the Sun or the centre of the cosmos and there are usually more than four spokes to give the wheel strength. And let’s face it; you need a pretty sturdy wheel to rotate the cosmos.

Idealise=put on a pedestal.

The symbol of the cross points to the four points of the horizon. This means that pain is common in all parts of Earth. If you connect the two ends of Figure 5.3 to the top you form the inverted Trinity Triangle. This means that the two equal smaller triangles of “Truth” and “Pure Light” within God’s breath (the base of the big triangle) overpower as an unmatched invisible, and sometimes visible Force. The formed arrowhead indicates that all people have one direction: towards Heaven. For this reason when they are idealised through pain and Faith in the Crucified One, they follow the right path.

Within Figure 5.3 you will find the number 4, which symbolises the meaning of the Spiritual World through its unceasing teaching on Station Alpha (Earth) about Faith, Goodness, Peace and Beauty.

5.10 About the Cross

{Pythagoras}

How far behind are Man's great earthly spiritual intellectuals and how little do they know about life and even less about life after it. Why?

It is because they have not consciously understood what pure knowledge is. They are attracted despite all their advances, only by matter and worldly events for the satisfaction of senses and visions. Because, whilst visualising, they do not see the deeper meaning. For this reason they fail.

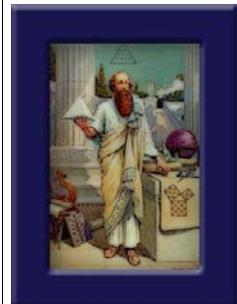

Very few from this materialistic world of yours were real Mystics. In my time I met very few, in Babylon and even further. Despite the then difficult times and my adventures I managed to get in contact with the Chaldeans and learned from them about the excellent Indian mystics. I gained knowledge that astonished me. From them, I mean the Chaldeans, I learned to honour and respect the Cross as a symbol of Virtue, Justice and of superb Love. One of the great mystics told me that the future Prophet of the Lord would be crucified on the Cross. For this reason this symbol represents, in brilliance the perfect, diamond of the Lord. Nobody else would have been able to substitute for the Divine Logos on the Cross.

Without knowing about Whom it concerned I respected this prophecy and I wanted to immortalise this symbol. Through mathematics the plus (+) and the multiplication (x) signs perpetuated the Cross in the human race as an additional need and a multiplicative increase of the human race, without mentioning all this to the general populous. Very few knew my aim and the Divine nature of the Pythagoras was born in Samos c 575 BC and died c 495 BC. Well known philosopher, mathematician, scientist, mystic and religious scholar. His name led him to be associated with Pythian Apollo in Delphi. Pythagoras is said to have traveled to Egypt and Babylon. Established the School of Pythagoreanism. Those who joined the inner circle of Pythagoras's society called themselves the Mathematikoi. They lived at the school and were mainly vegetarian. Other students (outer circle) who lived in neighboring areas were also permitted to attend Pythagoras's school. Known as Akousmatikoi,

I had a great penetrating power and was able to enter the thoughts of whoever was sitting next to me. In this I was assisted by a Divine Energy, not by my daimonion, but by an external energy of knowledge descending from Heaven. I received directions and messages from unknown powers from the world beyond. After a logical examination I verified that all these were true. And as true, I was able to expand this new knowledge of the Lord. Of course, I did not have direct discussions with Him but under His protection I received the Texts of those supreme Teachings. I must admit that Heaven enlightened me generously.

I was sorry that I was unable to transmit its secret Light to humanity because humanity was in darkness. Despite the Enlightenment humanity would receive, it would have been impossible for it not to have been in difficulties. It is self-evident why the secret texts of my knowledge were burned by my adored and kind wife (Theano). She kept the secret of life at the bottom of her soul.

Through this teaching I wanted to let you know that the Cross is a very ancient symbol of many nations which did not know the reason for it. However, they knew that its purpose would be "in the future". Therefore, through this symbol, the future Saviour of humanity was pre-announced to the whole world.

CHRIST!

You are Light. You descended in the darkness and with Your Light, You lit the lighthouse of Hope in order for the faithful in You, through Love, to walk the correct Path for their salvation.

daimonion or daemon:

The words daemon, daemon, are Latinized spellings of the Greek δαιμων (daimōn), used purposely today to distinguish the daemons of Ancient Greek religion, good or malevolent "supernatural beings between mortals and gods, such as inferior divinities and ghosts of dead heroes" from the Judeo-Christian usage demon, a malignant spirit that can seduce, afflict, or possess humans.

Pythagora's wife Theano and their two daughters led the mathematikoi.

She is credited with having written treatises on mathematics, physics, medicine, and child psychology, although nothing of her writing survives. Her most important work is said to have been a treatise on the philosophical principle of the Golden Mean.

Mathematicians now define the Golden Mean as a relation in which the smaller unit is to the larger unit as the larger is to the sum. In other words,  $a:b = b:(a+b)$ . The name for this relation is phi. Its numeric value is 1.618034. If you add 1 to it

5.11 The Cross is the magic key to your problems

{Pythagoras}

I (Pythagoras) will not refer to the Christian Cross. You already know this and be faithful to it. It is necessary to refer to the Cross of the Orthodox Church. That is, the one upon which the human body is not nailed.

This type of Cross pre-existed even before the appearance of the Atlanteans, the Aztecs, the Mayas and many other ancient civilisations that have disappeared, including the Incas.

The symbol of the Cross was considered to be very sacred and everyone honoured it. They all respected the Cross and expected from it the dawn of a new era that has not appeared until now because of Man's bad faith and poor education.

There are no problems that cannot be solved using the Cross. Of course, you do not know this but I knew it whilst on Earth. For this reason I convey it to you.

you get its square. If you subtract 1 from it, you get its reciprocal (1/phi). If you keep multiplying it by itself you get an infinite series that retains the phi proportion. The Golden Mean (Ratio) was used to construct the Parthenon in Athens.

The thirteen-century Italian mathematician Leonardo Fibonacci discovered that the phi proportion often manifests itself in nature as a spiral of increase found in snails, seashells, pinecones, and so forth. And so it is said, did Maya mathematicians.

Light descends from Heaven. That is, an enlightening energy that has two polarities as the electric current. It does not travel with the speed of 300,000km per second, as light, but with an indescribable speed.

This enlightenment has soul education as the positive energy and spiritual freedom as the negative. From underneath rises, as a perceptive energy, the logical justification and the earthly attraction.

These two energies collide in the borderline (no man's land) within the small circle. From there a decision is taken as to which direction a person will take.

When Man as a psycho-spiritual entity descends from Heaven he enters the triangle A-B-O for a male and O-Δ-Γ for a female. Why this is, does not interest you because you do not know the property of the electric current and neither has your Science ever been able to establish this. The current is soul without spirit. When Man learns how to use this energy, he succeeds; if not, he fails. This is because this energy is without a helm and its fortitude is in the hands of Man.

It is sufficient whilst entering the centre that I mentioned, to be able to differentiate the colours of Truth from Lies, of Good from Evil, and of Justice from Injustice. This is assuming that you have a rudder.

I leave it for you to think more deeply about this simple diagram so that you can apply it to your problems.

A third of you will understand this method of the Spiritual World. The rest of you will be taught its meaning through different methods.

5.12 About the Cross

{Pharah}
[19:59]

I return to the subject of the Cross. The Cross my brethren, existed long ago. It is the basis of the Universal World. The Cross was known to the mystics from ancient times.

Draw a cross as shown in Figure 5.5 and write the words Love, Faith, Justice and Brotherhood as shown.

The Cross is not only a symbol of earthly life but also of the Heavenly.

The Light of Love descends from above. Man's true Faith in God ascends from below. When you assimilate this straight line you have no need for the other two sides, that is, of Justice and Brotherhood. This is because Love encompasses everything and through Faith you unite with Love. But if your Faith is not clear (pure) then you have to go towards the right and then towards the left to complete the three points of Justice, Brotherhood and Faith in order to perceive and approach Love.

For the Babylonians, Assyrians, Incas and many other civilisations unknown to you, the Cross was the symbol of Divinity that governs everything. Never did the people of those times imagine that the Cross would materialise.

In the following centuries the Cross was used as an instrument for punishment. Since then it lost its true meaning. The Lord elevated this symbol to show both His Almightyness and the Light that He gave to a few souls who had clear Faith. For this reason Good Friday is the principal celebration of Heaven.

Death gives birth to new Life. Darkness is dissolved by Light and Love raises the entity to enormous heights.

5.13 The meaning of the Cross

{Pharah}

[3:26][1-11] [2:154]

The Cross has many meanings. Firstly, it denotes the House of the Lord that is Hope. Without Hope Man withers like a cut flower.

The cross is the symbol of addition. With it, Man ought to accumulate all the good directives that come from the Cross.

The Cross is Pure Light. With It Man is able to enter the bottomless depth of Knowledge.

The Cross has a stable base. It is an impregnable castle when those that lie inside its meaning have soul strength.

The Cross is the Lord's Boulevard. It is vast and impassable for those with weak soul strength and It is almost inaccessible. It is easy and accessible to the entities that find themselves within the Ten Commandments of the Lord.

The Cross signifies the targeting by the Lord of distinguished earthly entities for the uplifting of their souls .

The Cross guides our thoughts invisibly so that the Lord can give us a helping hand.

The Cross is all that is from the unknown Knowledge. Kneel before it.

The Cross is not only the symbol of Faith but also of Love and Hope. Without Hope we do not retain anything in this life. Without Hope everything is dark. But which Hope can we have, when our free will is based on baseless dreams of how to improve our material life? The Hope is one: that of the Heavenly Kingdom. Turn your eyes towards the Lord and ask for the comforting meaning of Hope and you will immediately receive it.

The human body in an upright position with the arms extended horizontally forms a cross. As stated before do not think that the Cross was used as a Holy Symbol only from the Lord's time on Earth. From ancient times the cross symbolised God and Man. The link between God and Man is the soul. The majesty of the Cross is unsurpassed. Man has not appreciated that he ignores the symbols it holds and that he cannot explain their essence because of this ignorance.

5.14 The symbol of Love

Confucius

The Cross, my dear brethren, as you know symbolises pure Faith. Many say that they believe. In reality they believe from habit, fear, distress or from many other impediments with the idea that the Cross will help them, but this Faith is not pure.

These people need to understand that first of all the Cross symbolises Love, because without Love there is no sacrifice. The Spiritual World does not ask you to sacrifice to prove your Love because then you would be making an error in having as one of your aims that you sacrifice yourself for Love.

And I ask, for which Love, when you have distanced yourself by sacrificing yourself? The Lord did not pursue sacrifice, but He has proven the strength of Love in practice and when Love reached the pinnacle of Truth, then those engaged with falsehood decided to sacrifice the Lord and His Love and convert it to sacrifice.

The Lord did not react because his work was done, that is, Love was transmitted as a concept and as a practical faith in the hearts of some men. Therefore, Christ through the heart touched Love and through Love He went forward towards Truth.

To complete the Lord's Love towards mankind, I need to say that Love is not only the symbol of Faith but also of Justice so that Man can perceive his path towards the Calvary of Victory. I do not mean that he should be crucified but that through his trials he finds the starting point that leads him to the True Light.

The Cross has many meanings that it is impossible for me to enumerate. For this reason I have discussed the most important points of Its symbolism as a star that leads Man to his duties, debts towards his fellow man, so that he does not take advantage of their weaknesses by undermining the base on which he wants to place his Guiding Cross.

How many times have I stressed these points, but because Man's memory only retains what is to his advantage and he forgets the main points whilst traversing the path of his life, I am forced to speak about the Cross as a symbol of virtue and a magnet of the heart so that the spirit can perceive the correctness of the steps as a progress of his inner self and also for his external self, since he lives on Earth and he has to sit the final examination of his actions.

The Cross helps everyone who knows its symbolism so that they do not deviate from the path of purity and piety.

Our life is but one of the dreams of that more real life, and so it is endlessly, until the very last one, the very real life of God.”
